For further information see the Carris website.

Important: If your luggage is larger than 50x40x20cm you must use the Aerobus/Aeroshuttle bus:

- Aerobus
- Line 1 runs between Lisbon Airport and the city centre, every 20 minutes, starting at 07:30 – 1900 and every 25 mins from 1900 - 2300. Tickets may be purchased onboard and cost 3.60€ for all-day travel.
- Line 2: This line passes by Sete Rios bus station and Praça de Espanha and the last stop is at José Malhoa Avenue. Tickets may be purchased onboard and cost 3.60€.

Visit the Aerobus site to see the routes, prices and further information.

The nearest stops to the main conference venue are Avenida de Berna, Campo Pequeno, and Praça de Espanha.

Getting around Lisbon

Metro - Metropolitano de Lisboa (map)

Easy, accessible and relatively cheap, the metro has four main lines: yellow (Rato - Odivelas); green (Cais-do-Sodré - Telheiras); blue (Santa Apolónia - Amadora Este); red (S. Sebastião - Airport)

Closest stations to the conference venue are Campo Pequeno (yellow line), Praça de Espanha (blue line) or S. Sebastião (blue and red line).The first trains leave at 06:30 from the terminal stations of each line; the last trains leave at 01:00 from the terminal stations of each line.

Buy (0.50€) and charge an electronic ticket at the ticket office or machine: Viva Viagem. Check your card balance using the machines, choosing the option 'carregamento/leitura'.

Tip: recharge with the approximate number of trips in mind, as you get a small bonus each time you charge it with more than 5€.

A single ticket costs 1.50€ and is valid for one journey, after validation, throughout the Metro network.

A one-day ticket Carris/Metro costs 6.40€ and is valid for an unlimited number of journeys throughout the Carris and Metro networks for 24 hours after validation.

Taxi information.

Taxis are a good and cheap way of getting around in Lisbon. Taxi fares are calculated on the basis of an initial flat charge, currently €3.25 during the day and €3.90 at night (a further €1.60 is charged for luggage bigger than 55x35x20cm). The call-out charge is €0.80.

Driving from the airport to most locations in central Lisbon should cost between €10 -15 (plus baggage and call-out charges). Meters are displayed in all licensed taxis, make sure the meter is running. Tipping is voluntary, but customary: 10% is the norm.

Lisbon taxis charge 25% more after 22:00 and on weekends (using Rate 2 rather than Rate 1). The fare outside of the city is calculated on a km basis upon leaving the city limits, about €0.40/km, and any motorway/bridge tolls are paid by the client. When taking a cab, try to enquire about the price to your destination first. Save your receipt and check if the license plate matches the receipt details. See if the meter is running and the rate code is correct. Book a transfer for out of city destinations such as Sintra, Cascais etc as taxis to these destinations will be very expensive.
